

U.S. Citizenship
and Immigration
Services

January 12, 2005

Press Release

USCIS Issues Reminder to El Salvadoran TPS Re-registrants Regarding Changed Filing Addresses

Washington, D.C. – The U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) issued a reminder today to El Salvador Temporary Protected Status (TPS) beneficiaries that filing procedures during this re-registration period are different from previous TPS re-registrations. The re-registration period began January 7, 2005 and will end March 8, 2005. All applications are to be sent to one of two Post Office Boxes in Chicago, Illinois. To prevent delays in the processing of a TPS application, it is essential that re-registrants address applications to the correct P.O. Box exactly as the address is written below.

If you are re-registering and sent your last application to the Vermont Service Center, the Form I-821, Form I-765, fees, and all supporting documentation should be filed at the USCIS Chicago Lockbox at:

U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services
P.O. Box 6943
Chicago, IL 60680-6943.

Or, for non-United States Postal Service (USPS) deliveries (such as overnight delivery services),
U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services
Attn: TPS/VSC
427 S. LaSalle-3rd Floor, Chicago, IL 60605.

If you are re-registering and sent your last application to either the California Service Center, Texas Service Center, or Nebraska Service Center or if you are filing a late initial registration, the Form I-821, Form I-765, fees, and all supporting documentation should be filed at the USCIS Chicago Lockbox at:

U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services
Attn: TPS El Salvador
P.O. Box 87583
Chicago, IL 60680-0583.

Or, for non-United States Postal Service (USPS) deliveries (such as overnight delivery services),
U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services,
Attn: TPS El Salvador
427 S. LaSalle-3rd Floor
Chicago, IL 60605.

-USCIS-